

Academic Honesty means:

-  You acknowledge work that does not belong to you.
-  You cite all sources that you have referred to in your work.
-  You complete all your work with integrity and without cheating.
-  You give credit to others where credit is due.
-  You use a style of referencing appropriate to the subject.

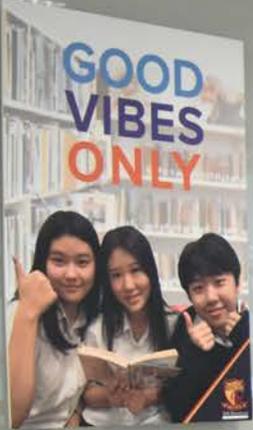

open-minded

knowledgeable enthusiasm

inquirer

EXIT

We approach uncertainty with thoughtful and sophisticated analysis. We understand the world in a complex and interconnected way. We are curious and we are resilient. We are confident in our ability to learn and grow. We are confident in our ability to learn and grow.

Reflective

Knowledgeable

We nurture our curiosity, developing skills for inquiry and research. We know how to learn independently and with others. We learn with enthusiasm and sustain our love of learning throughout life.

Inquirer

things you didn't do than by the ones harbour. Catch the trade winds in your sails.
- Mark Twain

ACS Story

NEWS

super-minded knowled

We thoughtfully consider the world and our own ideas and experience. We work to understand our strengths and weaknesses in order to support our learning and personal development.

Balanced

Academic Honesty
requires:

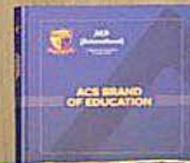

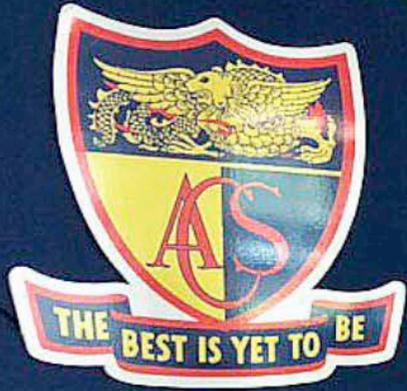

- 1. All assignments must be your own work.
- 2. All assignments must be your own work.
- 3. All assignments must be your own work.
- 4. All assignments must be your own work.
- 5. All assignments must be your own work.

Quiet Zone

The ACS Story

ACS International
Time Capsule
Commemorating the school's 10th anniversary in 2015

