

ACS (INTERNATIONAL) NEWSLETTER

Dear Parents, Students and Friends

Happy Birthday, Singapore! On Tuesday 9 August Singapore celebrates 51 years of independence and nationhood growth that is the envy of many countries around the world. Birthdays are times to have a party; times to look back and remember all that has passed since the original birth-day; and give thanks. Like most births the process of birthing Singapore was not easy – conflict within the Malaysian Federation between the state government in Singapore and the Kuala Lumpur government eventually led to Singapore being expelled and having to survive on its own.

Times of adversity help forge an individual or a nation's character. The conflict with the Malaysian Federation was one time of dealing with adversity in the birthing of Singapore's character. World War II and the invasion of Singapore was another period of time that helped forge resilience, bravery and strength of character.

The family of our National Day Guest of Honour Brigadier General (Retired) Lim Teck Yin know all about resilience, bravery and strength of character. Mr Lim's grandfather was World War II hero Lim Bo Seng, a resistance fighter who was eventually captured, tortured and killed in Malaya in 1944. His wife only found out about his death after the war.

Brigadier General Lim Teck Yin himself also knows all about resilience, bravery and strength of character. As a soldier and as an elite athlete who won seven SEA Games gold medals and an Asian Games bronze medal, all in water polo, Mr Lim has achieved enviable success. In addition, his skills and experience led to him being appointed CEO of Sport Singapore in 2011. His testimony is that success comes through a mixture of failure, trials, perseverance, determination, as well as achieving successful milestones along the way. He also attributes his schooling at ACS as a significant factor in his all round growth and development. His story is an inspiring one.

This newsletter contains a mix of news, student successes and coming events. It also contains details of the new school tuition fees for 2017 and 2018.

Best wishes

Rob Burrough

From the Pastor's Pen...

Remembering Ms Kathleen Manley

On 11/7/16, Ms Kathleen Manley, Vice Principal of ACS International passed away after a long battle with cancer. Raised by her grandmother at childhood, she developed grit and perseverance – traits evident in her dedication as a teacher and as VP to the school.

We will miss her dearly and our prayers are with her many friends, across continents, whom she leaves behind.

The memories of the Chaplains and Christian Ministry Staff are briefly listed below:

Ps Joel: “Kathleen pressed on, with grit in everything in life. Even though she leaves this life, her faith in God, testifies that ‘..the Best is yet to be.’ She rests with our Father in Heaven.”

Ps Noel: “Her devotion to the school and students shone through, overriding her physical limitations & inspiring me.”

Ps Clarence: “She was a woman of strong will and determination who would press on with every ounce of energy she had left for the excellence of the school.”

Ms Jelin Tan: “She was independent as a person yet wholly dependent on God.”

STUDENT SUCCESSES

8th ASEAN School Games – 2 Medals for Charity!

This year's 8th ASEAN School Games were held in Chiang Mai, Thailand, with 179 Singaporean athletes competing. Out of these, 2 of our students, Charity Lien (1LSG), and Ryan Wong (5OLD) competed in swimming and golf respectively.

Charity won a silver medal for the 100m Women's Breaststroke event and a bronze in the 4 x 100 medley relay which were two of the 3 medals brought home by Singapore for swimming. Commiserations to Ryan and the rest of the Singaporean team who were unable to best the Thai and Indonesian golfers. Regardless, we are sure that their hard work and the experience they gained will serve them well for future games.

Strings Category:

First Prize: Teo Kai Hui (4 TKK), Violin
 Second Prize: Tan Rui Yi (2 TCT), Violin

Best Overall Performance: Teo Kai Hui, (4 TKK), Violin

"I was very glad to experience the diverse musical talents at ACS (International), they all displayed a lot of potential. It is certainly not easy to juggle music and schoolwork, as I know very well from my own experience.

The proliferation of social media has reduced our attention spans, causing our tendency to celebrate sensation more than sophistication. In this context, learning music is increasingly necessary as a pursuit of refinement of the self, training us to think deeper and pay more attention to detail.

Classical music may not always evoke "wow" responses from audiences, but it is an intellectual and emotional exercise which greatly benefits the practitioner. On this note, I would like to congratulate the winner Teo Kai Hui for her meticulous rendition of two violin classics, as well as all participants who diligently practiced their craft and mustered the courage to present their music to the school."

Choice to Run – For those who cannot run away from hunger

Choice to Run was an event organised by the Student Ambassadors. Volunteers received pledges of donations for each lap they ran. There were obstacle stations along the way to challenge them, and to provide a bit of fun. During the event, there were also games and musical performances, as well as food stalls that sold snacks to supporters. The Ambassador team has done a fantastic job, and have worked hard to achieve their fundraising goal. We congratulate them on a successful and fulfilling fundraising effort.

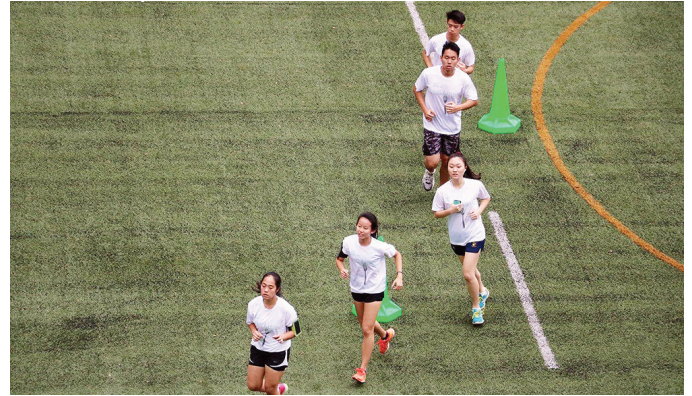

The following is a reflection on the fundraising experience:

Four months – four hours. Since the beginning of March, the 5th and 6th Ambassadors Board initiated an ambitious project to raise awareness and funds towards a world problem which shouldn't exist in the 21st century – hunger.

The Organising Committee

Since its conception, the aptly named event “Choice to Run” was a far cry from past common fundraising projects; it helped inspire participants to raise funds for the World Vision organisation in a creative and entertaining way.

It started out with a small team, but with the ever-increasing scale of the event, the run involved more than 150 volunteers and participants. Choice to Run would not have been possible without the extreme generosity and support of the Senior Leadership Team and the Parent School Partners. What made the event so different and so enjoyable was the overwhelmingly positive atmosphere that pervaded everything that we did.

The day wouldn't have been complete without the three live bands – The Afterthoughts, Team Lit and Do Hyung performing their captivating numbers.

One of the things that truly amazed me was how so many months of preparation culminated in four short hours. In some ways, I wish that the whole process could have lasted just a little bit longer.

With its closure, the event left me with bittersweet memories and taught me a great deal. Teamwork, sacrifice and humility were some of the qualities I encountered along the way, preparing for the event that took place on 23rd July. Choice to Run is now over. But for the 6th Board, this is only the first step on the path toward doing all that we can to make the world a better place. As John Bingham once said, “The reason we race isn't so much to beat each other, ... but to be with each other.”

ACS (International) Beats Hunger Together.

International Youth Floral Art Competition

Congratulations to Grace Cheng (6 LSG) on being awarded the bronze medal in the Under-21 Table Arrangement category at the International Youth Floral Art Competition. This is an annual competition where students from both local and international schools compete in the art of floral arrangement. The past few competitions have been held in conjunction with the Singapore Garden Festival from 28 – 31 July, and have been great opportunities for students to stretch their creative muscles. Grace also won the bronze medal in the same category last year; a well-deserved award for her creativity.

NTU Touch Attack – Champions!

It was a good end to the month of July for our Touch Rugby girls. They beat 15 other teams in the U18 division on 31 July, emerging as champions of the tournament. We laud them for their excellent performance and teamwork.

Japan Exchange Programme

Our school hosted our second annual group of students from Yamate Gakuin in Japan from 25 July to 5 August. Similar to our visitors from Hong Kong, the Japanese students followed our students for classes and other activities. Here are some reflections made by our student, and one of the Japanese students (quotes have been edited for clarity):

“Doing a study exchange programme was an unforgettable experience for me. We gained a lot within these 2 weeks, not only in the progress that we made in studying, but also in the building up of our friendships. Although I encountered some problems in the beginning due to the language barrier, we managed to overcome it and became close friends with one another. During these two weeks, my buddy and I have been together all the time. We went to the same classes, ate together, and wrote postcards to each other. She also helped me with my Japanese and I helped her improve her English. Through all these little things, our friendship developed. It was a very good opportunity for us to learn, to make friends, and also to experience different cultures. I really hope that we can continue to keep in touch with the students from Yamate Gakuin, and that our friendship will last forever.”

Tang Shiyu (Jenny), 4 CKS

“When I was in this school, I learned a lot of things. For example, I was inspired by the lessons. I took many kinds of classes in two weeks. I was surprised at the classes’ atmosphere. Most students in Japan feel nervous when conveying their opinion to their teachers. But here, if students have anything they want to say, they will ask their teacher loudly during class. As a result, all the students in class can understand more clearly. I think it is very important for learning.

I was especially amazed by my new friends. They studied so hard every day, and their writing skills were very good. They can even speak more than two languages. We are almost the same age as each other, but they look more able to cope with the world. Some of the older students in the group received equal treatment as us younger students, so nobody felt left out.

After this trip to Singapore, I realized just how important English is as a tool for communication. Simply polishing my grammar skills is not enough. I also have to improve my oral and writing skills, and should participate in class more.

Thank you for having us here. I made a lot of new friends and have memories of this visit that I will never forget. When I get back to Japan, I’ll continue to study English and try to go abroad during high school. I am thankful for the chance of being one of the exchange students. I’ll treasure this forever.”

Erika Shinabaga

Hong Kong Student Exchange Programme

From 25 July to 5 August, our school hosted students from our sister school, Hong Kong Methodist College. They were part of an immersion programme, and spent their whole day at school. Our students proved to be excellent ambassadors for our school; along with our teachers, they made it a memorable experience for our visitors. They attended classes and CCAs, as well as school events such as the Inter-House games. It was the first time some of our students were exchange student buddies, but over the course of the visit, they felt that they had made good friends with their peers from Japan and Hong Kong, and learned much along the way. Here are some excerpts from student reflections – they have been edited for clarity and length.

“...they taught me a lot from personality to the way of caring of others as well. I’m really slow at getting close to new people, and I remembered that in the first day when they came to Singapore, I was really afraid to talk to them. However, as they kept talking and introducing themselves to me, I started getting closer and closer to them. I’m really grateful to them and now we are friends. Besides, by the first few days they came to Singapore, I needed to show them where to take the school bus from, etc. This is the first time I was a buddy to an exchange student. Although it’s not perfect, this was a really good lesson for me to reflect upon.”

Tan Weng Tong (Tiffany), 4 TCT

“During the program, I learned some new knowledge and about Singaporean culture, and also thought how amazing and how big the world was... ...I saw the students ask teachers questions when they encountered something they didn’t know. I think it is a very good learning habit that I should put into practice.”

Yu Hei Man Nicole

“I felt that this programme was awesome in many ways. I was glad that Batsy (her buddy) loved our school life. She kept saying, “Oh this school is so nice!” She taught me some Chinese and I taught her some Korean. She also made lots of international friends here. Sometimes she had difficulties in understanding during lessons because they were a year younger than us, I tried to encourage her and she overcame the difficulties. We learned a lot through this amazing experience.”

Joung Jaewon (Kalista), 3 TCT

“I felt very honoured and happy that I could be one of the students to go to Singapore to be an exchange student as this is the first time being an exchange student in Singapore... ...I think the Ambassadors and students in ACS (International) are so passionate. They always smiled and said hi to us when they saw us! I was so surprised about it. I studied in Year 3 in ACS (International); some lessons went so fast and I couldn’t understand them. Maybe it is because I am still in Secondary 2 in Hong Kong, so I couldn’t catch up with them, but the teachers in the school are so nice. Not only did they ask me whether I understood, but they also patiently answered my questions! Thank you so much! I expected to make more friends in ACS and learn about the culture in a different country, as well as from the other international students studying there... ...My favorite thing in ACS (International) was the huge garden (referring to the Science Terrace) near the General Office. That place is so peaceful with lots of greenery and I could even hear birds chirping! A big thanks to all teachers, buddies, ambassadors and students. I hope that I can have a chance to be an exchange student in ACS (International) again.”

Batsy Choy (Jaewon’s exchange buddy)

“The whole exchange programme... ... was a very fun and fulfilling 2 weeks. It was very enjoyable attending my classes with Twinky, my buddy, and although it was hard for her to participate in the class work as she hadn’t studied the same things as we have, I think we can both say we learnt a lot.”

Jamie Ho, 3 GHK

“ACS (International) was so different from how I had imagined it. No matter the subjects, environment or the students, students are allowed to use their cell phones in the school during the lesson and the school provides a high degree of freedom for students... ...The teachers here impart knowledge through an interactive way. They are kind to students and humorous which makes the lesson full of delight. English is the second language for people in Hong Kong, so being at ACS gave me more opportunities to speak English in class and with others. The schoolwork requires students to deliberate by themselves. I have learnt to think deeply by myself and not just listen to the teacher’s words.”

Yuen Hiu Ching Twinky (Jamie’s exchange buddy)

“When I first joined the programme, I expected to meet more people so I could stop being the shy girl I was and widen my horizon. But what I’ve learnt in ACS is much more than that. At ACS, you have to put yourself out there, whether it is for academics or socializing. I had to step out of my comfort zone and give myself a chance in order to learn. It was not as simple as it seemed. I sometimes felt homesick but my buddy Mio, always reminded me that I wasn’t alone and had friends around. I couldn’t be more thankful... ...The freedom allowed to students, the activities, and the interactions between teachers and students were my favourite parts of ACS life... ...I especially liked the interactions between teachers and students - they are like friends - and students can easily approach them. It gave a family-like vibe to the school. I enjoyed the immersion programme so much, and will definitely recommend it to the students at the Methodist College.

Law Chi Yu Beverly (Mio’s exchange buddy)
